CLASSIFICATION SECTION

INFORMATION REPORT

25X1A2g

COUNTRY

China

DATE DISTR.

26 November 1948

SUBJECT

Political Information: Soviet-Chinese

Communist Cooperation in Anti-American

Propaganda Activities

PLACE ACQUIRED

25X1A6a

DATE OF INFO See below

25X1X6

NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW)

NO. OF PAGES 2

25X1A2g SUPPLEMENT

REPORT NO.

Date: 1 0 MAY 1978

The following information, although not current, is of possible interest,

- 1. In April 1948 the Shanghai office of the Bueeau of Information and Statistics of the Kuomintang (BIS(KMT)) Retailed six young staff members, former members of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), to various local universities for the ostensible purpose of investigating the activities of students who belong to the CCP. In reality, these men were to incite the students to engage in anti-American propaganda activities. They were to have Soviet advisers. The BIS(KMT) in Shanghai is headed by former CCP members who are thoroughly venal.
- 2. On 9 June 1948 a special meeting of the Resistance Committee of Chinese students from all Shanghai universities was held at the office of the All-Union Association for Cultural Relations with Foreign Countries (VOKS), 217 Rue Cardinal Mercier. Instructions were issued in reference te propaganda activities against American support of Japan and Marshall Plan aid to China.
- 3. All Soviet organizations of importance, such as the ISO (sic), attention Society of Soviet Engineers and Technicians (OSIT), and the Soviet Citizens' Association, had in June received instructions to spread special propaganda among the Chinese against the Japanese still Comment. It is possible that ISO resident in Shanghai. refers to the Art School (IZO), a section within the Cultural Department of the Soviet Citizens' Association.) This propaganda was to be carried out parallel with anti-American propaganda. The following persons were designated for this work:
 - a. Anatholy Goldbreich, a former salesman for the Bakerite Company; speaks Chinese fluently.
 - b. V. M. Anastasyev, a member of the ISO propaganda group. He was formerly in Tientsin and speaks Chinese.

WARNING NOTICE: THIS DISTRIBUTION LISTING MUST BE ASSIFICATION STATE ARMY X AIR

25X1A6a

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

25X1A2a

-2-

- b. T. N. Gladchenko, associated with the TASS news agency propaganda bureau.

 1948 lists Miss T. Gladchenko as manager of the circulation department of the Novosti Dnya. In May 1948 it was reported that she had gone to India with her sister and brother-in-law, N. Nikitin.)
- d. N. N. Nikitin, a newspaper man associated with the TASS news agency, with good connections with Chinese newspapers. He had recently come from India.
- 4. In June a propaganda leaflet directed against the United States was secretly printed by the Shanghai Student Anti-American Committee, and was dropped over Nanking and Shanghai by a student who had taken passage on a CNAC plane. The leaflet was printed by the Wang Lee press on Wuting Road, a branch of the Soviet-supported Epoch Publishing Company. It stated that the American government is rebuilding Japanese militarism which will be used eventually against China. Details include:
 - a. The United States has given Japan 25 naval units, and 100,000 naval personnel are presently in training.
 - b. The Japanese army is being restored: 300,000 men have been trained and more are in training.
 - c. Japanese military industry is being completely restored, and 49 airplane factories are under construction.

